REDWOOD CITY, CALIFORNIA SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 20, 1919

ESTABLISHED 1859

EARLY HISTORY OF PIONEER CHURCH OF PORTOLA RE-TOLD IN FULL

The Knights of Columbus committee in charge of the celebration of the establishment of the first church in San Mateo county is working diligently and is arranging an appropriate program for the occasion. A double event is to be celebrated at the Portola Catholic church on Sunday, September 28. On this date Father George Lacombe becomes the first resident pastor of the church. The St. Dennis church was established in September 28, 1853, at Portola by Dennis Martin. Both events will be duly observed. Mass will be celebrated at 10 o'clock and afterwards literary exercises will take place on the grounds. Mayor James Rolph will be one of the speakers. All are requested to bring their lunches and enjoy their meals under the wide spreading trees of Portola. The following is a brief history of St. Dennis church written for the Times-Gazette by James V. Swift who was then connected with the paper, while Attorney C. N. Kirkbride was the editor. The article will be read with interest from the fact that it was prepared with the approval of Mr. Martin, who furnished the data and leading facts himself. The article appeared in the issue of June 21, 1890, Dennis Martin passed away the Tuesday before.

A few miles west of Menlo Park, on the road leading to Searsville, there is an old frame building, grim and deserted. Its walls are weather-beaten and bare from the storms of forty years. The moss of ages lies thick upon its roof and decay and ruin are everywhere visible. Surrounding it are the green fertile fields of Senator Stanford and within plain view the towers of the great University point heavenward. It is a familiar site—this old structure—with its weather-beaten walls and moss-covered roof, and to those unacquainted with its history it is regarded only as a crumbling landmark which in a few more years will have passed away. The old residents look upon its decay with sorrow. To them the name "St. Dennis" awakens many fond recollections of San Mateo's earlier days. The old building was once a church, the pioneer Catholic church of this county, but during later years it has fallen into disuse. It was built by Dennis Martin, who in the early days was a wealthy landowner in this vicinity.

Dennis Martin was born in Ireland 69 years ago and came to the United States when a young man. In Kentucky he met with Martin Murphy and John Sullivan, both of whom are remembered in this valley, and in their company he crossed the plains and reached California when the gold excitement was at its height. For a few years he worked in the mining districts and in 1850 he came to this county, which was then known as the "Redwoods" bringing with him a snug fortune with which he purchased large tracts of timber and farming land from Captain Coppinger and Maximo Martinez, who were the original grantees of the Mexican government. He built mills and manufactured lumber which he shipped to Santa Clara and San Francisco. The remains of one of his mills is still standing on the San Francisco creek not far from the church. In addition to building the pioneer mills of this section, Mr. Martin built the first bridge which spanned Redwood Creek and the first wharves that line its bank. He also built the schooner "Mary Martin" which traded between this town and San Francisco. In those days, he says, there was hardly a sign of Redwood City, and only occasionally way-side buildings marked the sites of the many other thriving towns since built up between San Francisco and Santa Clara. For miles north and south the valley was, almost without exception, one vast range, untenanted but by many herds of cattle which roamed its broad expanse of soil.

Almost the entire population of the county was concentrated in the mountains where the large groves of valuable timber, now almost totally extinct furnished paying employment for hundreds of sturdy pioneers. Among those who toiled there no one Martin, who soon became immensely rich. He was a man of generous impulse and while fortune favored him he hoarded not his wealth, but gave with a liberal hand.

"In 1853 he donated the land and erected the building which afterwards became a church. It was first a public school, and for a short time was conducted as such at Mr. Martin's expense. There was then no church nearer than that at Santa Clara, and the idea of changing the building into a house of worship was suggested by Father Divorse, a missionary priest who used to make his headquarters with Mr. Martin when visiting this section. The building was enlarged and properly furnished. The altar was decorated with the handsomest drapery and flowers and upon it were placed solid silver candlesticks which were especially consecrated in Rome, after which the church was dedicated by Archbishop Alemany who named it St. Dennis, in honor of its founder. Father Nobly, the founder of Santa Clara College, often officiated in this church. After him came Father Peccardi, an Italian who lived on the coast-side. His meek and humble manner and zealous work in the cause of Christianity made him much beloved by all who knew him irrespective of creed. His present residence is unknown to the writer, but he often comes to this county to visit those of his old parishioners and friends who are yet among the living. Later came Father Dempsey, (now deceased) a young man, full of life and vigor, who saw that the spiritual needs of the then rapidly increasing population of San Mateo county could not be supplied from one church. He set to work and before many years handsome churches were built in almost every town in the county. Then the old building lost its usefulness and was soon abandoned entirely. The windows are broken and the door creaks to and fro on its rusty hinges.

"The interior of the building is similar to that of other churches although it lacks the beauty and elegant finish of those of modern construction. The ceiling cloth has rotted away in places and the rain has soiled and stained the paper which covers the walls. A handsome carpet is laid on the floor near the altar, and with the exception of the silver candlesticks the altar is the same as it was when last used. The vases and artificial flowers are still there. To one side is the book stand and closed book as though but a few moments before the priest had pronounced the benediction and the devout congregation had disappeared. Among the front entrance is the choir loft. It contains only the pieces of a broken up organ. A modest wooden cross takes the place of a spire and at the rear of the building are two small bells suspended from a wooden frame. Although the place is neglected and the doors are always opened no one has been so irreverent as to disturb a single article of the interior furnishings.

While the writer was rummaging a pile of old records in one of the ante-rooms he found a book containing a list of the worshippers at the church. All of those who are there enrolled are well-known to San Mateo county. Some of them still reside here but the greater number of them are peacefully resting in the little grave yard near by with its tumble-down fence and moss-covered monuments.

"On church feast days the Spanish and Mexican residents were accustomed to come from all parts of the surrounding country and gather at the old church and the manner in which those days were observed was interesting indeed. For days they would remain camped in the churchyard and most of the time was spent in horse-racing and the buying, selling and trading that was carried on would remind one of the agricultural fairs of the present day."

CITY TRUSTEES MET MONDAY

The City Board of Trustees met in regular session last Monday evening, with all present.

Frank Alonzo, who lives in the first house on the south side of the Woodside road, appeared before the board and asked that he be given a water connection for his place. The request was granted, Alonzo to pay the cost of connection and meter.

The following dance permits were granted:

Progressive Social Club, September 27, 3 o'clock.
Swastika Club, October 4, 3 o'clock
Redwood City Aeris of Eagles, October 11, 3 o'clock.

Otis M. Carrington addressed a communication to the board, offering to purchase the old fire on the State Highway near Jefferson street. After some discussion it was decided to ask for bids for the structure.

J. M. Walter, Jr., was appointed city plumbing inspector, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of R. C. Smott.

The Southern Pacific Railroad company addressed a communication to the board explaining that it intends to put in concrete slabs between the rails on the Broadway crossing.

REPUBLICANS MEET TO ORGANIZE

The Republican county central committee met at the courthouse on Saturday last and effected a temporary organization by electing John MacBain chairman and D. E. O'Keefe secretary. Another meeting is called for this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the courthouse when a permanent organization is to be effected. All the members of the committee have been notified of the meeting and they are expected to attend as matters vital to the Republican party are to be discussed at this gathering.

THE WEEK'S EVENTS IN LOCAL CIRCLES

Mrs. J. B. Limbaugh, while emerging from the swimming tank at Gilroy Hot Springs last Saturday slipped and fell fracturing one of the ligaments of her leg. She was removed to the home of her sister in this city and later was taken to her residence in San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Woodhams received a telegram from Belg. Congo, Africa, on Thursday announcing the pleasant and interesting news that a baby daughter was born to Doctor and Mrs. Roy C. Woodhams at that far off land on July 17. The telegram was sent on its journey on that date and did not reach here until Thursday of this week. The doctor and his bride left here on December 1917, arriving at their destination several months later. The doctor is a graduate of the local high school and a San Francisco Medical school. He is accounted a very skillful physician. He was a brilliant student.

D. J. Lynch, the popular deputy assessor of Halfmoon Bay, was here on Thursday calling on friends. Mr. Lynch has held the position of deputy assessor for many years always giving satisfaction both to the property owners and to the assessor.

It was a great disappointment to the people and particularly to the children when it was announced on Wednesday morning that President Wilson would not come down the peninsula to Stanford. It was expected that Mr. Wilson and his wife would motor down the highway. On the route they would have been greeted by thousands. School children in many places were to have had flag drills in honor of the president. Many came as far as Gilroy to see him. The president was tired out when he arrived in the city from Portland and was prevented by his physician from making the trip to the University.

Jack Murphy, connected with the Cullen company, for a number of years, left yesterday for Los Angeles to enjoy a vacation of two weeks. Mr. Murphy will see all the points of interest while in the southland. This is his first vacation in three years.

Rev. F. A. Brown, pastor of St. Peter's Episcopal church for nearly two years, has accepted a call from Gonzales, Texas, and will depart from here on September 29, preaching his sermon on Sunday evening, September 28. Mr. Brown and his charming wife will carry with them to the Lone Star state the best wishes of the community.

Kenneth Rice, the aviator and son of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Rice of this city, has been demobilized from the service and is expected home in a few days from Houston. Mr. Rice was with the punitive expedition in Mexico recently. After visiting here for some time he will make his home in El Paso.

The Knox Drygoods Company during the week received a large stock of blankets, woollens, fall and winter dress goods which are the very latest patterns and designs suitable for the wants of the general public.

John Poulos, formerly with the Hotel Sequoia has returned to Redwood City, and has taken his old position with the hotel. His many friends are glad to see him back again.

The old P. P. Chamberlain safe, used by him for nearly forty years, was moved from the basement of the courthouse to the county recorder's office on Wednesday. The safe was used by Mr. Chamberlain as county treasurer in the early eighties. Through its doors passed millions of dollars of the tax payers money in years that have flown. It is certainly an old relic which will be preserved for many years to come. It replaced a smaller safe in the recorder's office.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Olson, Mr. E. Olson, Mr. Lester Dalquist and Miss Hazel Sweeney were here this week from Tacoma and were the guests of Mrs. Eric Thompson, 216 Hudson street.

Mrs. Jos. H. Nash, chairman of the Redwood City War Savings and Thrift Stamp Campaign, has issued a call for a meeting to be held at 8 o'clock on Monday evening, September 22, 1919, in the supervisor's meeting room at the courthouse.

Representatives of the Chamber of Commerce, the Lodges of Redwood City, the Woman's Club, the Banks, the schools and the manufacturers are expected to co-operate with the chairman and are urged to attend the meeting, where plans will be discussed for the sale of 1919 Thrift and War Savings Stamps.

Mrs. John L. McGinn, county chairman, will be present and will explain the work being done in other parts of the county and will help with suggestions as to how the plans of the Redwood City committee can be carried out.

MOVE TO REDWOOD CITY

The R. O. Yates family, who have been living for several years in the Kohli place at Fifth and Laurel avenues, San Mateo, are moving to Redwood City, where they will make their home at 52 Myrtle street.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS

An enjoyable dance will take place at the San Carlos Assembly hall this evening. Davis and Southwood are to furnish the music. A splendid time awaits all who attend.

Mrs. Belle Wentworth, who is a member of the Oakland school department, was here during the week on a visit with her mother, Mrs. James Crowe.

Mrs. Mary Pearl and her attractive daughter, Miss Grace Pearl, of San Jose, were the guests of Mrs. Elizabeth Hanson the fore part of the week. Mrs. Pearl as Miss Mary Dugan was a teacher in the local school department some years ago. She has been a resident of the Garden City for many years.

Miss Margaret Roche, vice-principal of the Redwood City grammar school, is rapidly recovering from her recent severe illness. She hopes to be able to resume her duties after the session of the teacher's institute to be held at Halfmoon Bay early next month.

Frank Marcus, connected with the Frank Tanning Co., returned during the week from a motor trip with his wife to Santa Barbara and other southern points. They were gone for two weeks.

W. I. Traeger, grand second vice-president of the Native Sons of the Golden West, made an official visit to Redwood Parlor on Thursday evening. He was greeted with a large attendance, big delegations coming from Palo Alto and Menlo Park parlors. The visitor, who is the supreme court clerk at Los Angeles, made a pleasing address, congratulating the parlor on its progress. After the meeting refreshments were served and the remainder of the evening spent in speech making.

Great display of souvenirs from France now in Woodhams' store window. They are the property of Ensign Arthur Stevens, son of Rev. and Mrs. Stevens.

Young King Granger of Phelps street killed a big deer on King's Mountain last Sunday. King, his mother and grandma has been enjoying some big eats of nice deer meat the past three days.

Tons of beans are stored in the barns on the coastside. Bring them over to Redwood and sell a thousand sacks a day to our people at 5 cents a pound which is all they are worth and as much as the citizens will pay.

TWO SUPERVISORS LEAVE FOR MONTANA

Supervisor John MacBain and Supervisor Joseph Francis, of Halfmoon Bay, will leave next Wednesday for Montana to be gone for two weeks. Both officials will be the guests of Colonel Galen who was in charge of the Judge Advocate's office at Camp Fremont during the war. He was a major then and during his stay in Menlo Park was a close friend of Mr. MacBain. Colonel Galen went with a unit to Siberia and on his return some time ago he spent three days as the guest of Mr. MacBain. He then exacted a promise from the general supervisor that he would visit the Colonel in his Montana home. The Colonel was recently demobilized. He is a candidate for governor of Montana, but this does not mean that the two supervisors are going to that state to do politics for their friend, the Colonel. Mr. Galen is a prominent lawyer of Montana and was the U. S. Attorney of the state when war was declared. He at once resigned and offered his services to the government.

JURY DISAGREES

F. X. Sullivan, charged with running an automobile while under the influence of liquor, was tried before the superior court on Wednesday. After an hour's deliberation the jury was discharged, failing to agree. It is understood the jury stood six for acquittal and six for conviction. Sullivan was arrested at Daly City at the early hours of morning, July first, last. He ran into a machine operated by Supervisor Francis of Halfmoon Bay.

INVESTIGATING THE MURDER OF MRS. SATIRA COBURN

District Attorney Swart and his assistants have been investigating the murder of Sarah Satira Coburn at Pescadero, last June, during the past ten days. They have run down every clue and sifted every report with the result that they find no tangible point upon which to make an arrest. The investigation will be finished early next week. Owing to the conflicting reports and false clues it looks now as if the crime cannot be fastened on anyone.

THE BANK OF ITALY APPLIES FOR LETTERS

The Bank of Italy has applied for letters of administration upon the estate of Francisco Valle who died on October 24, 1918. The estate consists of cash in the bank amounting to $24.36. The only heir at law is the wife of the deceased, Catherine Valle.

REDWOOD GETS CONCRETE RAILROAD CROSSINGS

New and permanent crossings at Broadway and Main streets in Redwood City are at last assured. A letter from the Southern Pacific company to the board of trustees there, carries word that concrete crossings in slab form have already been made in the San Francisco shops of the company, and that these will be laid at an early date. The slab form makes it possible to take up the crossing, whenever necessary, in sections.

The board of trustees of Redwood has also been notified by the Peninsula Rapid Transit company that their through buses from San Francisco to Palo Alto cannot stop at Redwood. It was stated, however, that a stop might be made at Redwood when the San Francisco-San Jose run is inaugurated.

WHO WON THE WAR?

Who won the war? The question has been debated on many sides by many people, but there can be no question that without the aid of America the Allies would have lost the struggle. America certainly won the war. Here is a new phase of the case from the Drogheda Independent who says "Ireland won the war."

Germany was defeated; but the Germany would have smashed the Allies in France before the end of October, 1914, were it not for the hardhood and desperate valour of the Irish regiments in French's First Army; had the Germans broken French's and Joffre's forces completely in the first onrush, they would have won the war. Irish soldiers saved the armies of the Allies, the war would have been lost were it not for those Irish soldiers; therefore, Ireland won the war.

ASSISTANT CASHIER OF THE BANK OF ITALY TRANSFERRED TO S. F.

Frank Rizzo, the popular assistant cashier of the Bank of Italy, who has been connected with the local institution for a long time, has been transferred to the main bank in San Francisco. This is a substantial promotion for the young man who has many friends in Redwood City. Mr. Rizzo is popular with a wide circle of acquaintances who regret to learn of his transfer. His numerous friends wish him every success in his new position. His place has been taken by Amerigo R. Rossi, who has been receiving teller at the San Mateo branch bank. He was here on Wednesday getting acquainted with the patrons of the bank. Mr. Rizzo will not leave until the first of the month.

SAN CARLOS NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Payne and their bright little baby girl have returned to their home in San Francisco after several weeks visit at the home of Mrs. Payne's mother, Mrs. Jno. A. Boyd.

Mrs. E. A. Eaton and little grandson, Eaton Peters are over from Alameda for a few days visit with San Carlos friends.

Miss Carrie Rasmussen of Atherton was here for the week-end visit at the home of her high school chum Miss Gladys Dickinson.

From the frequent visits of Rudolph Holmquist, Jr., to San Carlos it is suspected that he is looking out for a location and also a partner to start a branch hardware store in San Carlos as an adjunct to his father's business in Redwood City.

At a meeting of the street committee presided over by Chairman Dranzky A. Jones last Thursday evening considerable progress was made toward getting down to brass tacks in the work of laying our sidewalks, and extending our lighting system so that Fred Lippman won't have to go home in the dark and through the mud from the Native Sons meetings at Redwood.

Mr. S. J. Mahew representing Morton and Beer of San Mateo in the sale of auto trucks and Fordson tractors was here looking out for business one day last week.

Both the station master and the porter of the S. P. building here are very proud of the fact that the San Carlos station grounds have two of the finest lawns on the whole S. P. system.

Owing to San Carlos being in such close proximity to the principal distributing points for the Pacific coast and ocean bound mail, and also on account of the great prominence of San Carlos, the distributing clerks in San Francisco and the railway mail clerks inadvertently throw all mail in the San Carlos pouches which has the name of San Carlos in the address. It matters not if it belongs at San Carlos, Philippine Islands, South America, Colorado, Arizona or if addressed to San Carlos apartments or on San Carlos streets in San Francisco, San Jose and many other towns which are likewise afflicted. Also when in care of San Carlos mines at Idria, San Benito county.

From the specifications and plans it would be hard to judge who is to have the most elaborate and handsome residence in San Carlos, Lester A. Conklin or George F. Walker; one of brick and tile and the other a two story cement building. It will be nip and tuck; and anyhow, they will be the two finest homes in San Carlos.

At the time the next issue of this paper goes to press the convention of the National League of Postmasters will be in full swing at the Casino Auditorium in Santa Cruz, and this is to remind the third and fourth class postmasters of San Mateo and Santa Clara counties to be sure and be there on time with your wives and husbands and help to shape the policies and elect the officers of the only organization representing our interests; and to also extend the glad-hand to our Brother and Sister postmasters from other parts of the state.

Mr. J. E. Cowgill, secretary of the Third and Fourth Class Postmasters' Association, received the following letter from Representative Hugh S. Hersman:

Washington, D. C., Sept. 9, 1919:
—Mr. John E. Cowgill, San Carlos, Calif.:—I have your letter of the first instant and can assure you of my continued interest in the employees of the Post Office Department. Last week a bill passed the House allowing a temporary increase of $150 for the present fiscal year. While this is not very much in comparison to the increased cost of living, still it will help some and we will look forward to a greater recompense for their services in the future.

Yours sincerely,
(Signed) HUGH S. HERSMAN.

ELIZABETH BUCHMANN WILL HAS BEEN FILED

Edward Buchmann has filed the last will and testament of Elizabeth Buchmann, who died on August 18, 1919. The estate is less than $10,000 in value. The will was executed on May 13, 1905 and was witnessed by C. N. Kirkbride and Theodore Fendler. The petitioner was named in the will as executor.

SUES TO RECOVER ON NOTE

Jose R. Romero has brought an action in the superior court through his attorney, Archer Kincaid, to recover the sum of $275 on a promissory note secured by a certain chattel mortgage. The plaintiff also asks for interest and attorney fees in the sum of $75.

THE SUPERVISORS HOLD MEETING

The board of supervisors met in regular session Monday, September 15, 1919, at 10 o'clock, there being present John MacBain, presiding; T. L. Hickey, W. H. Brown, Jos. M. Francis and Dr. C. V. Thompson.

County Horticultural Commissioner H. E. Woodworth addressed the board relative to the compensation allowed the deputy engaged in the squirrel extermination work for automobile expenses. Woodworth explained that the deputy, whose wages are fixed by law at $3.50 a day, is using his own Ford car and has been allowed $35 a month for the use of same, which he did not consider sufficient to cover all expenses, such as the buying of gasoline, oil, new tires, etc.

Taking into consideration the low salary allowed the deputy, together with the fact that his work often requires his traveling over rough country, adding to the wear and tear costs of the machine, the board agreed that the $35 allowed was not sufficient, and on motion of Francis, seconded by Hickey, voted to increase the allowance to $45 a month.

Ben Blow, who is connected with the Good Roads Bureau of the California State Automobile Association, appeared before the board in the interest of a book on California highways, including their history and building, which he is compiling. Blow offered to devote ten pages of the book to San Mateo county for a price of $200, four of the pages to be devoted to descriptive matter, four to photographs and two to maps. Included in the offer were twenty copies supplied free to the county.

Blow explained that practically every county in the state had already taken space in the book, which is to be widely distributed throughout the United States.

Realizing that such a book would be of great benefit to San Mateo county in view of its present excellent chain of highways, the board, on motion of Brown, seconded by Hickey, accepted the offer of Blow and voted to expend the sum of $200 on the above proposition.

Supervisor Thompson addressed the board relative to certain claims for sprinkling in his district that had been allowed by the board under the general fund and which had been charged by the auditor to the Fifth road district fund.

Deputy County Auditor Ed. Stack, who was present at the meeting, stated that it had always been customary to charge claims for sprinkling out of the different road funds and that this was the first time to his knowledge that claims for this purpose had ever been ordered out of the general fund.

Chairman MacBain said he was under the impression that some time ago an order was made by the board allowing the claims of the Fifth district for sprinkling to be paid out of the general fund.

On motion of Thompson, seconded by Francis, it was ordered that the county auditor transfer the claims in question back to the general fund and that hereafter all claims for sprinkling in the Fifth district be charged against this fund.

The board took up at this time the question brought up at the last meeting by County Surveyor George A. Kneese relative to certain maps or tracings that had been prepared by his predecessor, James V. Neuman, and which, according to the present incumbent, are now in the possession of Neuman. Kneese argued that these maps belonged to the county and he had asked that they be returned to his office.

Former County Surveyor Neuman, who in answer to a request of the board had appeared before the supervisors in the matter, explained that the map referred to by his successor was one prepared by him for the county assessor several years ago, when the latter was making a large number of transfers in his office. In making this map, Neuman claimed that he had used considerable of his own data and had devoted a great deal of his personal time and labor in the work. He had supplied the county assessor with a blue print of his labors, he said, together with a negative, but he felt that the original copy belonged to him.

Neuman claimed that he had left a one hundred per cent better record than any predecessor and that the office when he stepped out contained a complete survey record of every survey ever made by him. He said he felt that he had given back to the county everything belonging to it.

Kneese still contended, however, that Neuman was not entitled to data or maps that had been made by him during his term of office and said that the records of the office would show that the data had been compiled and the maps made at the expense of the county.

Following considerable discussion, Former County Surveyor Neuman suggested that the board appoint a committee to investigate the matter with a view of determining the proper ownership of the above data. This suggestion was adopted by the board, and on motion of Hickey, seconded by Brown, the chairman was empowered to appoint a committee of three members of the board. Whereupon Chairman MacBain appointed Supervisors Hickey, Brown and Thompson.

County Recorder T. C. Rice appeared before the board again in reference to his request made at the last meeting, to have a safe formerly used by the County Treasurer and now stored in the basement of the courthouse, removed to his office. Rice explained at the previous meeting that he had secured an estimate of $65 for the cost of the moving.

On motion of Thompson, seconded by Hickey, the request of the county recorder was granted and an order made directing the removal of the safe.

On motion of Brown, seconded by Thompson, Supervisor Brown, who is planning a trip to Butte, Montana, was granted a leave of absence from the State, beginning September 24.

On motion of Brown, seconded by Thompson, a similar leave of absence was granted Supervisor MacBain who is to accompany Francis on the above trip.

George A. Wentworth, secretary of the California Anglers' Association, appeared before the board and asked that action be taken to have a ledge of rocks removed from the mouth of the Pescadero creek where it enters the lagoon at Pescadero. Wentworth explained that the rocks were the cause of the closing up of the creek each year and seriously interfered with fishing. He said he believed the rock ledge could be removed at an expense of about $200.

Supervisor Thompson, in whose district the Pescadero creek is located, stated that it cost the county each year $25 to clean out the mouth of the stream and often it closed up again before the year ended.

On motion of Brown, seconded by Thompson, County Engineer George A. Kneese was instructed to investigate the situation and ascertain the cost of removing the rocks.

The board on motion of Thompson seconded by Hickey, voted to increase the amount allowed the county auditor for compiling and printing the annual county statistical report from $300 to $400.

MENLO PARK NEWS OF ALL SORTS

Doings at Peninsula Garden Spot As Told in Breezy Style By Our Reporters

A representative of Libby, McNeil Co., was here during the week with a view of buying the government warehouses to establish a large cannery here. The government is not yet prepared to dispose of the buildings but when they do so this big cannery concern will buy them. A cannery established here would be a big benefit to the community.

St. Patrick's seminary, The Sacred Heart convent and the Warren school began the fall semester with greatly increased attendance which shows that parents desire to send their boys and girls to this pleasant and happy environment.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Hamilton were hosts on Saturday evening at their beautiful home in Menlo Park for a dinner party and dance of especially lovely appointments. Eighty guests were present for the buffet dinner, which was served at small tables, arranged for congenial little groups. Cards and dancing followed.

Recently there passed to its eternal rest a venerable and venerated soul. Mrs. John Brophy, an old resident of San Mateo county, with many descendants, died in San Francisco on the eleventh of the present month.

Several more than the four score and ten years allotted to humanity had flown over her head—flown, for indeed the years flew swiftly for her whose life had been one long, willing and happy service to those she loved; and when, after a few months of failing health had foretold the end, the final summons came, the whitened head bowed to the call with the readiness of one who has no cause for fear, and the beautiful soul went on to its eternal reward.

Mrs. Brophy was born in Kilkenny county, Ireland, on the 17th of October, 1824. Early in life she came to America, living in New Orleans for a time, later settling in Iowa. In 1852, while still a young woman, she joined a company of brave people traveling westward in "prairie schooners" to the wonderful country of California. There were thirty wagons in the band, and while en route the party was attacked by Indians, but fortunately all escaped injury and reached the goal in safety.

Mrs. Brophy settled in Downsville, but a few years later moved to San Mateo county where the family took up their residence near the old St. Dennis church in Portola.

In 1863, the family moved to Alameda county, living near Hayward until 1875, when they moved to Pleasanton where they resided for thirty years.

Mrs. Brophy then moved to San Francisco, where she lived until the time of her death. She leaves a family of eleven children, nine of whom are living: Mrs. C. G. Kammerer, of Dublin, California; Mrs. Warren Cottle, of San Jose, Cal.; Mrs. Mary Martin, Dublin, Cal.; Mrs. A. W. Gale of Menlo Park, Cal.; Miss Elizabeth Brophy and sister Anne Bernadine, of San Francisco, Cal.; James Brophy, of Palo Alto, Cal.; Joseph Brophy, of Alameda, Cal.; and Daniel Brophy, of Montana; also twenty-three grandchildren, and thirteen great-grandchildren.

Actuated always by the noblest impulses of life, self-sacrificing, loving, patient and gentle, this lovely soul left an immortal example of goodness and virtue for those so fortunate as to be related to her by blood, and also for her many faithful friends, in whose hearts her memory will always remain green, and her loss long and sincerely mourned.

A FRIEND.
Camp Fremont was officially closed last Saturday and the two officers and one army field clerk that made up the garrison that once numbered 35,000 men were sent to San Francisco stations. The army still has warehouses with a large amount of supplies, and watchmen are to be left on guard, but as an army base the camp is no more.

J. Donadio has sold his property in the Dominga tract to Mr. Gregg, the gold tester in the sub-treasury, San Francisco, for $2700. He bought the place a year ago from Charles Hazelhurst for $1500.

Mrs. Paul Fagan, whose husband is a well-known banker of San Francisco, will move to the city next week. She occupied the beautiful McKinnon place at Glenwood avenue with her family all summer.

Fred Nessler's new show windows are attracting attention. His display in them would do credit to a big municipal establishment. Fred carries in stock everything from an anchor to an anchor. He knows what the people want.

Mrs. B. T. Lacey has begun the erection of her new home at Atherton. The old home was burned down some months ago. The new residence will be modern in every respect.

William Carnduff of Ravenswood and George Genocchio of Redwood City returned from the wilds of Mendocino county on Monday with three of the finest deer ever shot in that county.

Mr. W. J. Dusel, the popular superintendent of the Bear Gulch Water company, celebrated the fifth anniversary of his wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Dusel entertained many friends at their attractive home at the Lakes. Besides a number of local people many came from Stockton, Berkeley and Oakland. The decorations of the parlors were neat and attractive. A sumptuous dinner was enjoyed by all. Mr. and Mrs. Dusel were the recipients of many useful gifts and the best wishes of all present.

Members of the Garden and Hospital committee of Camp Fremont met at the home of Mrs. Sigmond Stern last Tuesday in Menlo and expressed their intention of continuing their interest in the public health hospital and the Red Cross. Dr. White, commanding officer of the hospital, addressed them on the great necessity of this co-operation with the work at the hospital.

As chairman of the committee, Mrs. Stern presided, and those who were able to be present were Mrs. E. L. Eyre, Mrs. Andrew Welch, Mrs. Parker Maddux, Mrs. Howard Morrow, Mrs. C. G. Lathrop, and Miss Marie Smith of San Francisco. Mrs. E. J. Morris, head of occupational therapy at the hospital, Colonel J. F. Kreps and Mrs. Mildred Dean were also present.

A promise was made by the members of the committee to give their aid to the two sales that are to be held this fall, one of which will be at Palo Alto in October.

Mrs. Stern will leave for New York on the 13th of the month to be away for a few months. During her absence Colonel Kreps will be in charge of the Red Cross and will be assisted by a number of Red Cross officials, who will be in charge of the different activities now established by the Red Cross at the hospital.

Eighteen debutantes gathered to day at a luncheon given by Miss Mary Emma Flood in honor of Miss Barbara Donohoe, at the St. Francis club in San Francisco. Among the guests are Misses Amanda McNeer, Eileen McIntosh and Doris and Katherine Tustlar.

The tax rate fixed by the supervisors for the fiscal year is: Menlo Park, $3.678 on the $100 valuation and Ravenswood, $4.348.

REMOVAL OF POLES IS TOO COSTLY, IS PLEA
A conference between the board of trustees of Redwood City and representatives of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company will be held in Redwood City on September 22 or 23, to consider the removal of telephone poles from the main streets of Redwood, as ordered by the trustees some months ago.

According to City Attorney Albert Mansfield, officials of the telephone company recently called upon him and told him that it would cost the company $35,000 to remove the poles. They expressed themselves as anxious to hold a conference with the board.
